Subj.: Invitation to the 19th International Military Glider Competition

Date: Cologne, 30th October 2018

The Bundeswehr Sports Flying Association (Bundeswehr-Flugsportvereinigung e.V.) will organize the 19th International Military Glider Competition between July 24th to August 05th 2019 at HOLZDORF Air Base/Germany.

Primary objective are sports competitions between German and foreign glider teams, with secondary objectives being enhancing interest for flying, promotion of sports flying and consolidation of contacts between international armed forces.

It is a pleasure to invite a maximum of two military glider teams of your country to participate at this competition.

Each team should consist of a pilot and at least one helper. Officially provided accommodation is free for participating teams. Service such as provided catering and the aerotows has to be paid by the team on site.

Additional information about the competition as well as a registration form will be available online at www.imgc.de by January 15th 2019.

Participants can also send the registration form as hardcopy to:

Kommando Streitkräftebasis
UAbt Org z.H. Oberstleutnant Jörg Zinnert
Fontainegraben 150
53123 Bonn
Germany

Registration should be finished by the end of March 2019. Please ensure the arrival of your teams not later than July 24th 2019.

We are happy to address additional questions at imgc@bw-flugsport.de

We are looking forward to your reply and hope to welcome your team at the 19th International Military Glider Competition.

Sincerely

By order

Lieutenant Colonel
